

ЧЕКА ЧОТТИ

CHEKKA & CHOTTU

BEST FRIENDS

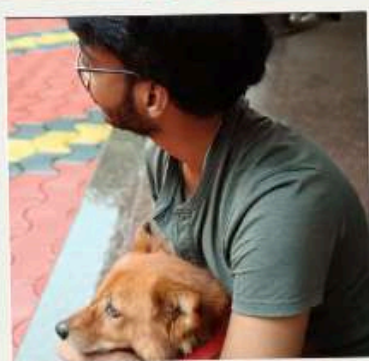

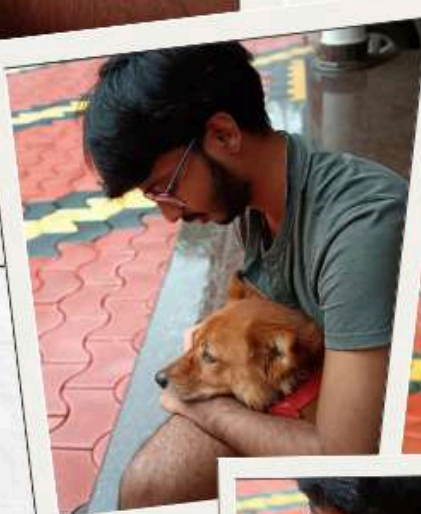

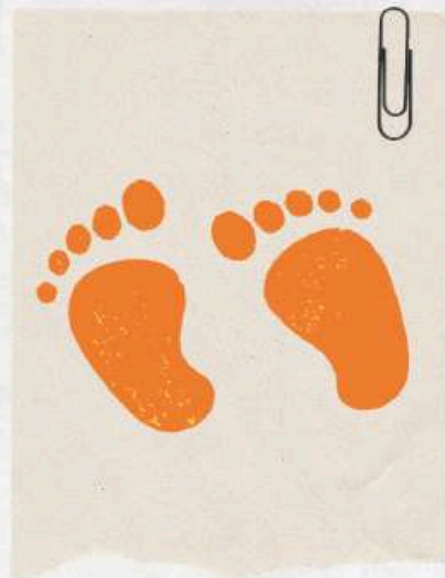

ABOUT US

It all started with a simple wish from Chekka — he always dreamed of having a pet dog of his own. One day, news spread around town that a dog near Andhichira Junction had given birth, and the owner was ready to sell the puppies. Chekka wanted one badly, but he was too scared to ask his father directly. So, like every younger brother caught in an elder brother's mission, Unnie became the messenger.

After giving it some thought, Dad finally agreed. Soon, Unnie and Dad went on a small trip and returned home carrying a tiny puppy inside a jute bag — Chottu. The moment Chottu entered the house, his little cry filled the home with life and happiness. From that day onward, a beautiful journey began — not just of a boy and his dog, but of two inseparable best friends growing up together, creating memories filled with love, chaos, loyalty, and endless adventures.
